

SOCIETY

On Thanksgiving Day one of the prettiest floral parades ever attempted here will be given by the automobile owners of Honolulu. This will be the much-heralded automobile fiesta. The board of judges has been announced with Governor Carter as chairman, including Hon. A. S. Cleghorn and H. D. Cousins. Judgment will be made after the procession starts from Palace Square and the award of prizes will be made at Kapiolani Park. At the present time it looks as if all the contestants would attend the football game at the baseball park. The Walkiki side of the gridiron has been reserved for automobiles, and the presence of at least a dozen decorated machines will be quite a feature.

It is understood now that a horse-vehicle parade, automobiles excluded, will be something for the future to develop. Princess Kawanakoa is willing to take up a procession of this kind, and it is suggested this would be a scheme for New Year's day. A number of people handy with the reins and whip are said to be willing to enter such a contest.

The Healan Boat Club masquerade ball to be given at the Moana Hotel on Thanksgiving evening will be the principal social event of this week. Miss Rosie Cunha will be the Queen and Mr. Charles Chillingworth the King, and they will be attended by a suite including a number of leading society people. Princess Kawanakoa will be in charge of the affair and her costume—perhaps she may have two for this occasion—will be quite elaborate. She will probably represent some famous Queen of antiquity. The tickets are selling at a great rate, and there is every promise of the masque being an artistic and financial success.

Mrs. J. C. Cohen introduced at the concert of the Ancient Order of Hibernians last Tuesday evening, the latest song, "A Bit o' Blarney." It was so appropriate for the occasion that it was rousing and she was obliged to respond to half a dozen recalls.

Col. McClellan, U. S. A., was entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening by Admiral and Mrs. Terry.

Captain Lyon, U. S. N., the new commandant of the Honolulu Naval Station, and Mrs. Lyon are domiciled for the present at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

A dinner party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Day on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Kimball, mother of Mr. Clifford Kimball, was the guest of honor at a tea given by Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Punahou, on Wednesday afternoon.

Princess Kawanakoa entertained at luncheon on Wednesday at her Maonoa country place for Mrs. W. A. Purdy.

Lieut. Philip Andrews and Mrs. Andrews have taken the house at 1738 Riggs place, which they will make their home during the tour of duty in Washington upon which Lieut. Andrews is now employed. Mrs. Andrews is a daughter of Capt. Andrew Fuller of Honolulu—Army and Navy Journal.

An Oakland society item in the San Francisco Call says:

The marriage of Miss Hilda Berger, daughter of Mrs. C. O. Berger, and Frederick C. Monell, was quietly solemnized this evening at the home of the bride, on Webster street, about thirty guests witnessing the impressive service, which was read by Rev. F. X. Morrison.

An elaborate decorative scheme was carried out, graceful palms decking the hall, while the drawing-rooms, where the ceremony was performed, were decorated in pink and white, quantities of tall, graceful chrysanthemums and bridesmaid roses, the marriage bower being entirely fashioned of the snowy chrysanthemums.

The bridal gown was an exquisite creation of softest chiffon poplin, with lace trimming, the veil being held in place with a cluster of lilies of the valley, which exquisite blossom also formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Mina Berger, who was her sister's only attendant, was gown in the softest clinging India silk, with deep yoke of rare lace.

Mr. Rogers of San Francisco supported the groom, and a most elaborate luncheon followed the ceremony, the dining-room carrying out the pink tones in exquisite roses.

Late this afternoon the young people departed on a brief honeymoon trip, and on their return will make their home in Oakland.

The engagement announcement of Miss Emily Halstead and Col. McClellan, U. S. A., commandant at Camp McKinley, was a pleasant surprise to the many friends of both parties.

It is said that an engagement of a young man of this city and a California girl who visited here about a year ago, has been broken off.

At the initial performance of "The Spy" at the Opera House on Thursday evening Governor and Mrs. Carter occupied a box. Japanese Consul and Mme. Salto were much interested in the performance, having purchased a large number of tickets for the benefit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. F. Howard Humphris and Justice Humphris of England, on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes and Mrs. Beals were also present.

Mrs. William Love was the guest of honor on Tuesday afternoon at a delightful reception accorded by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Cooke. The guests were received in the drawing room which was attractively adorned with palms and greens. They were regaled with dainty refreshments at small tables placed on the lanai, each being garnished with a bowl of pretty flowers. During the afternoon a quintet club furnished delightful music, a la Hawaiian.

Dr. L. E. Cofer, head of the U. S. M. H. S., will entertain the members of the Territorial Medical Society at luncheon today at Quarantine Island.

On Saturday evening November the fifth Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Knudsen gave a very enjoyable card party at Waiawa, Kauai, in honor of their guest, Mrs. Charles Rice of Lihue. Progressive pedro was played in the attractive lanai, which was tastefully decorated with palm leaves, potted plants and fern leis, with the lamps and Chinese lanterns giving a soft and agreeable light.

When the playing commenced the hostess presented each guest with a maile lei, which had a pretty effect on the dainty evening gowns of the ladies. Each progression in the games was marked by a pink carnation tied to the winners lei. This idea for marking the progressions was unique and original, adding very much to the charm of the entertainment. No prizes were given, but bouquets were presented to the winners. At half past eleven supper was served in the dining room. The table was prettily decorated with maidenhair fern and pink carnations. At the ladies places were amusing pictures, taken from the recent magazines, artistically mounted, while to the gentlemen were given the corresponding witticisms, by the matching of which, each found his partner for supper. This caused much merriment and laughter, as the selections were very appropriate.

The guests departed soon after supper, with many expressions of pleasure over the delightful evening.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Rice, Dr. and Mrs. Sandow, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Faye, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. George Ewart, Mr. and Mrs. Danford, Mrs. V. Knudsen, Miss Dan-ford, Miss Banham, Miss Borron, Miss Abbott, Messrs. Hart, Helne, Brodie, Westen, Ruddiman, Fries and Eric Knudsen.

A birthday surprise was given Hon. A. S. Cleghorn on Monday by Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. James Jaeger. A large number of intimate friends of Mr. Cleghorn assembled at Alinahau at 4 p. m. and greeted him on his return from a luncheon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer. Queen Liliuokalani gave the first greetings.

Mrs. B. Ingalls's violin recital will take place the 28th of November in the Young Hotel under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Ingalls has arranged a fine program. She will be assisted by Mrs. Werthmuller, a solo pianist, Mrs. Scott soprano soloist and Mrs. Gerard Barton.

Chicago now has an Aloha Club. The word "Aloha" seems to have a charm for mainlanders, as San Jose, Seattle, Portland and other cities have their "Aloha Clubs," devoted to literary pursuits.

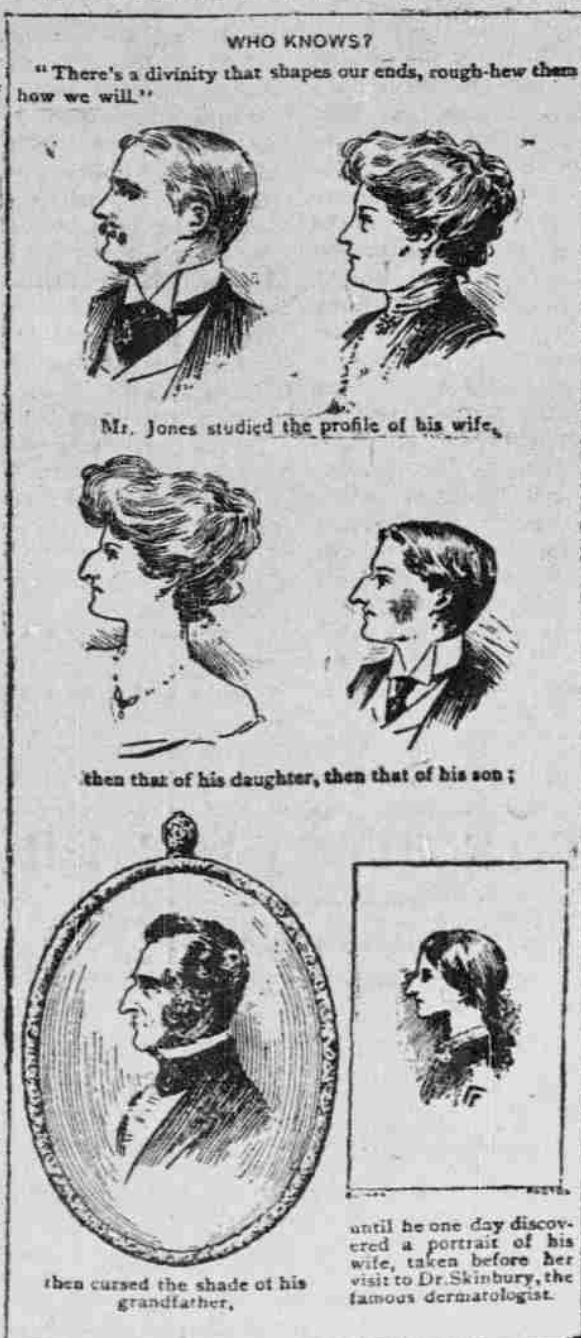

Mrs. S. M. Damon and son Douglas returned from Italy during the week.

Admiral and Mrs. Terry and Miss Terry will sail on the Manchuria for the Orient, the former having been replaced as naval commandant by Captain Lyon. The Terrys return to Washington via the Suez.

Mrs. E. M. Boyd gave a birthday dinner at the Alexander Young Hotel for Mr. Boyd. Tulle leis tied with bunches of violets formed a pretty table decoration. Among the guests were Miss Cordelia Walker, Miss Ewart, Mr. Emil Waterman and Mr. Samuel Walker.

On Monday evening a private view of the Kilohana Art League will be given from 8 to 10 o'clock at the rooms, Nos. 10 and 12, Young Block.

The two men on the street corner had been wrangling over politics for half an hour, and a crowd had gathered. One of them was fiercely denouncing imperialism. "What do you understand by imperialism?" demanded the other, "let's hear your idea of it." "Imperialism, sir—imperialism is—say, do you think it ought to be spoken right out before these half-grown boys?"—Chicago Tribune.
